

Artificial intelligence is used in education to support learning and student engagement.